

Quiz 1: Story Detective

1. When Clark fell on the track, he endured—
 - (A) bruises, broken bones, and chipped teeth.
 - (B) cuts, bruises, and broken bones.
 - (C) cuts, bruises, and chipped teeth.
 - (D) chipped teeth, cuts, and skin burns.
2. According to the details of the story, what did winners of the races receive?
 - (A) Trophies.
 - (B) Cash prizes.
 - (C) The warm glow of victory.
 - (D) Paid vacations.
3. Clark and Jenny have competed against each other in the past—
 - (A) at an invention fair.
 - (B) for the title of class clown.
 - (C) to see who could score the lowest on tests and exams.
 - (D) at none of the above.
4. What was the name of the event in which Jenny and Clark participated?
 - (A) The Run Fast and You're the Winner race.
 - (B) The You Win If You Run Fast race.
 - (C) The Fastest Runner Wins race.
 - (D) The Run Fast and You Win race.
5. What did people block from Jenny's view near the end of the story?
 - (A) The sky.
 - (B) The finish line.
 - (C) Clark Peters.
 - (D) The medal she won.

Quiz 2: Time Master

1. Which event happened last in the story?

- A Sweat dripped on Jenny's hand.
- B Jenny fell on her backside.
- C Jenny grabbed Clark's head.
- D The emergency crew jumped out of the ambulance.

2. What happened before Jenny touched the ribbon at the finish line?

- A She hit her head on the ground.
- B She was knocked unconscious.
- C She was booed at by the crowd.
- D She was disqualified from the race.

3. Of these actions, which one occurred before all of the others?

- A A loud noise started the race.
- B Clark asked Jenny if she thought she would win the race.
- C Jenny saw motion out of the corner of her eye.
- D Jenny felt the painful blotch on her neck.

4. Which event happened after the start of the race?

- A A girl put her hands on her hips.
- B An announcer spoke.
- C A string stretched.
- D Words echoed.

5. Of these four events from the story, which of them happened second?

- A Paramedics ran.
- B Clark's teeth were chipped.
- C Jenny woke up.
- D Jenny asked, "What happened?"

Quiz 3: Fact Finder

- 1. One of these statements is fact, not merely an opinion. Which one?
 - Clark and Jenny raced the one-hundred meter dash.
 - Jenny should be ashamed for what she did during the race.
 - It was wrong for Jenny to be disqualified.
 - Clark needs to get some payback for what Jenny did to him.
- 2. Jenny always came in second place to Clark. True or false?
 - True.
 - False.
 - Neither. This is just someone's viewpoint.
 - False, because she sometimes got third or fourth place finishes too.
- 3. Only one of these ideas about the story is true. Identify the factual statement.
 - Jenny didn't like Clark because she had a crush on him.
 - Clark is class president at school.
 - Clark cried after falling in the race.
 - Jenny apologized to Clark and agreed to pay his medical bills.
- 4. Which thought is only an opinion?
 - Jenny should never be allowed to race again.
 - Jenny was sweating before the race began.
 - The audience gasped when Jenny pushed Clark down.
 - A firearm was used to mark the start of the race.
- 5. Fact or Opinion? Jenny deserved her injuries for what she did to Clark.
 - Fact.
 - Opinion.
 - Both.
 - Neither.

Quiz 4: Causation Commander

1. What caused the character of Clark to sustain bruises in the story?
 - (A) The crowd throwing solid objects at him.
 - (B) His hard fall to the ground.
 - (C) Jenny punching him.
 - (D) Him tripping over untied shoelaces.
2. What was the cause of the crowd booing at Jenny during the race?
 - (A) Witnessing Jenny cheat while competing.
 - (B) Seeing that Clark didn't win.
 - (C) Jenny making angry gestures at them.
 - (D) An announcement that the snack stand was closing.
3. What was the actual cause of the race beginning?
 - (A) The announcer calling all racers to the starting line.
 - (B) Jenny saying, "Read, set, go!"
 - (C) The firing of a starter pistol.
 - (D) A red light turning green.
4. The effect of the ribbon at the finish line being strung too securely was that—
 - (A) Jenny was disqualified.
 - (B) the organizers of the race were sued for millions of dollars by the runners.
 - (C) no person won the race because the string could not be broken.
 - (D) Jenny was strangled by the string as it stretched.
5. What was the immediate effect of Jenny pushing down on Clark's head?
 - (A) he bounced upward as though he had springs on the bottoms of his shoes.
 - (B) he was badly injured.
 - (C) he was propelled forward and ran at a faster speed.
 - (D) he fell down, but was basically unharmed.

Quiz 5: Word Wizard

1. The word disqualified is used at the end of the tale. What does the term mean?
 (A) authorized.
 (B) eligible.
 (C) banned.
 (D) suitable.
2. The term surged, in the 6th paragraph, could be replaced by the word—
 (A) rushed.
 (B) dripped.
 (C) oozed.
 (D) fell.
3. What is an antonym for the word local, as it has been used in paragraph 1?
 (A) Native.
 (B) Community.
 (C) Foreign.
 (D) Home.
4. In paragraph 4, there is a 2-syllable word that means bewildered. Which word?
 (A) Rivalled.
 (B) Against.
 (C) Upset.
 (D) Puzzled.
5. What's the best definition for the word muggy, as used in the first paragraph?
 (A) Breezy.
 (B) Humid.
 (C) Dry.
 (D) Chilly.

Quiz 6: Inference Pro

1. What about the race is likely true, even though it isn't described in the story?
 - A Racers were allowed to use jetpacks to give them an advantage.
 - B Every person who raced received a medal for participating.
 - C Cheaters are always disqualified, without exception.
 - D Younger runners were given a head start.
2. The most probable reason why the finish line ribbon didn't break is that—
 - A Jenny cursed herself when she hurt Clark.
 - B it was made of a special kind of metal fabric.
 - C it was tied too tightly at both ends.
 - D Jenny was too weak to make it snap.
3. Which of these conclusions can you logically assume about Clark?
 - A He secretly hates Jenny.
 - B His shoes came untied during the event.
 - C He paid Jenny's entrance fee for the race.
 - D He might have won the race if Jenny hadn't assaulted him.
4. If the tale continued for another page, what would most likely happen?
 - A Clark would transform into a hideous monster and stomp on Jenny.
 - B Jenny would be asked to apologize to Clark.
 - C Jenny would steal all of the medals being awarded to racers and flee.
 - D Clark would take off his shoes and throw them at Jenny.
5. Even though it's not directly stated in the story, the reader can infer that—
 - A Jenny has probably cheated at other contests before.
 - B the crowd would have booed Jenny whether she cheated or not.
 - C Clark will likely die from the injuries he suffered.
 - D Jenny will one day race in The Olympic Games.

Quiz 7: Summary Sleuth

1. Which phrase could make sense as a replacement for the story's title?
 - A Clark Loses His Eye.
 - B A Dinner of Shoelaces.
 - C Disqualified!
 - D The Risky Race of Robinson Street.
2. What is the second paragraph of the story mainly about?
 - A The injuries Clark suffered as a result of Jenny's cheating.
 - B Background information.
 - C What Jenny is thinking and experiencing as she gets ready to race.
 - D The race being announced.
3. A theme for this story could be—
 - A cheaters never prosper.
 - B running in foot races is extremely dangerous.
 - C what goes around, comes around.
 - D both A and C.
4. The best summary for The Mistake of Cheating would be which statement?
 - A A girl races against her main rival and hits him in the head during the event.
 - B A girl loses a race when she falls down.
 - C A girl cheats during a race by assaulting a fellow runner and is disqualified.
 - D A girl wins a race by cheating and hurting a classmate.
5. If you were writing a summary about this tale, what detail should be included?
 - A That Jenny sweated prior to the race starting.
 - B That Clark asked Jenny if she thought she would win the race.
 - C That the ribbon marking the finish line was pink in color.
 - D That Jenny pushed Clark down during the event.

Quiz 8: Analogy Ace

1. Jenny is to the man who disqualified her, as—

- a misbehaving student is to the teacher who punishes him.
- an owner is to a pet that scratches up the furniture.
- a painter is to the artwork he creates.
- a dancer is to the music to which she dances.

2. The crowd is to the racers, as—

- a volcano is to its eruption.
- fans are to the musicians on stage at a rock concert.
- a doctor is to the medicine he prescribes.
- dolphins in a waterpark show are to their trainers.

3. Crossing the finish line is to racing, as—

- eating a hamburger is to a person's growing waistline.
- winning a game of roulette is to choosing the right number on which to bet.
- giving a dog a treat is to the animal biting the hand that feeds him.
- acing a quiz is to getting a good grade.

4. Jenny Markowitz is to Clark Peters, as—

- a victim is to a school bully.
- a mailman is to the mail he delivers.
- a boxer hitting below the belt is to his opponent.
- an inventor is to someone who steals his newest invention.

5. Clark is to his chipped teeth, as—

- a quarterback is to a concussion.
- a skydiver is to a parachute that failed to open.
- a lizard is to the insect it ate.
- a speedboat is to the skier it pulled.

Quiz 9: Story Brain

- 1. An element of the story's identified setting is a—
 - (A) concession stand.
 - (B) victory podium.
 - (C) muggy atmosphere.
 - (D) cheerleading squad.
- 2. In what point-of-view did the author write this story?
 - (A) First person.
 - (B) Second person.
 - (C) Third person.
 - (D) Objective.
- 3. Which detail is part of the story's exposition (background information)?
 - (A) The fact that racers receive medals for first, second, and third place finishes.
 - (B) That the proceeds of the event will go to charity.
 - (C) The concept that people pay money to enter one of the races.
 - (D) All of the above.
- 4. The climax of the story's plot occurs when—
 - (A) Jenny pushes down on Clark's head.
 - (B) Jenny falls to the ground when strangled by the finish line ribbon.
 - (C) Jenny tells Clark that she knows she will win.
 - (D) Jenny is booed by the crowd.
- 5. What are the roles of the main characters of this story?
 - (A) Jenny is the protagonist, Clark is the antagonist.
 - (B) Jenny is the antagonist, Clark is the protagonist.
 - (C) Jenny and Clark are both protagonists.
 - (D) Jenny and Clark are both antagonists.

Quiz 10: Comparison Hero

1. What characteristic do Clark and Jenny have in common?
 - A Is disqualified from the race.
 - B Is booed by the audience.
 - C Becomes injured.
 - D Touches the finish line ribbon.
2. The phrase overly confident would best describe—
 - A Clark.
 - B Jenny.
 - C the crowd.
 - D the emergency crew.
3. What term could be used to describe the character of Clark from this story?
 - A Crazy.
 - B Sneaky.
 - C Mean-spirited.
 - D Unfortunate.
4. A difference between the racers of this event, and real Olympians, is that—
 - A Olympians want to lose.
 - B Olympians win medals.
 - C Olympians are not disqualified when they cheat.
 - D Olympians compete with opponents from other countries.
5. Which one of these traits would describe Jenny, but not Clark?
 - A Wears shoes.
 - B Wants to win the race.
 - C Will cheat to win.
 - D Paid money to enter a race.